Lieut. Merritt White of the Aero Squadron, which has been in active service over the German lines up to the signing of the armistice, has arrived at his home in Tyngsboro and is expected here in town soon to visit his uncle, N. S. Shattuck, and his many other friends. He is the eldest son of Rev. and Mrs. A. C. White, formerly of this town. On Thursday of last week he called upon a former Pepperell girl, now Mrs. Laura Herrig Kelley, in Lexington, and was on his way to Worcester to see his brother, Corydon White.

The following announcement, which recently appeared in a Henderson (Ky.) paper, which closely concerns one of our Pepperell young men, will be read with interest: "Mrs. Andrew J. Worsham, of Henderson, Ky., announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Virginia Y. Worsham, to Chaplain Boynton Merrill, U. S. N., of Pepperell, Mass." This is Mr. Merrill's second marriage, to many of his friends, his first surprise being the announcement of his acceptance to the pastorate at Putnam, Conn. He is not yet relieved from duty on board the U. S. S. Pennsylvania, which just at present is in Cuban waters.

A. G. Pike was in Boston on Monday to see his mother, Mrs. H. A. Pike, who is suffering from eye trouble, a slight operation being now necessary and performed by the specialist, Dr. Amidon, last week Thursday.

Dr. E. L. Hill, a well-known summer resident here, has recently returned from the New York, where he has been in the service as a medical corps, and has moved with his family from the home he has occupied since his marriage, in Mills, to Framingham. He is prominently connected with one of the hospitals of that place. Mrs. Hill was formerly Miss Eva Morse, of Townsend, and was organist at the Methodist church here in this town for some time, having also a class of music pupils. She has been church organist at Mills at different times since changing her name and residence.

Mrs. Percy O'Neal moved back into her former rent on Mill street, next the Pepperell card shop, last week Friday. She has been spending the winter with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Barz, Tucker street. It is expected that Mr. O'Neal may return from France soon, where he has been serving in the Canadian forces.

Mrs. George W. Pierce and Mrs. Alice Bartlett went to Lexington last week Tuesday, going by trolley from Nashua, N. H. They were the guests of Mrs. Laura Herrig Kelley and on Wednesday the party went into Boston to see the famous, spectacular play, "Jack o' Lantern." Mrs. Bartlett returned on Thursday, Mrs. Pierce remaining for a longer visit with her daughter, Mrs. Herrig, in Somerville.

Miss Marguerite Donnelly left town last week for Hanover, N. H., where she will take a course of training for a nurse, at the Hitchcock Memorial hospital of that place.

Worcester Smith, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Smith, is recovering from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Parties have recently been in town looking up land damages for the Nashua Manufacturing Company, if their project of raising the dam at Nashua, ten feet or more, is carried out. By a survey, it is estimated that it would affect several miles along the lowlands of the farm of George E. Shattuck and adjacent farms lying on the banks of the river. It is also sure that the road leading into Pepperell from Runtell's bridge, within the boundaries of the town of Hollis, would need relocation, or considerable expenditure in raising the same. This is the piece of highway concerning which there was much criticism two years ago, when it became almost impassible in the spring. It was raised and gravelled at that time.

Joseph Donnelly is out with a new Hudson Super-Six car, or will be when the roads improve.

Miss Mildred Lunt was at home over the week-end from Topsfield, where she is now teaching.

The Woman's Missionary society will hold the regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Mary M. Pond on Thursday, March 20, at three o'clock.

Mrs. Cora Tilton and little daughter Mildred spent the week-end with Mrs. Ellery Davis, coming from Ayer, where Mrs. Tilton is now housekeeper for a party.

At the regular meeting of Acoma Rebekah lodge on Tuesday evening the entertainment committee had charge of the social which followed the business session. What was enjoyed, five tables being filled. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, also, closing the evening very pleasantly.

P. W. Flynn has returned home from from St. Joseph's hospital, where he recently had an operation on the bone of the forehead.

Mrs. William Bennett is now reported as improved, so as to be able to move about the ward at the hospital, and may be discharged the latter part of this week.

Town schools close next week Friday for a one week vacation. When they reopen March 31, there will be two sessions and the hot lunches served the pupils will be discontinued.

Miss Sara Hubbard is still absent from her position as teacher of the second and third grades, Main street building, and is having quite serious difficulty in both ears, following her illness with the grippe. Miss Sliney is acting as her substitute.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ringdahl recently spent a week's vacation at their home on the South road, Mrs. Ringdahl having a slight illness while at home, due no doubt to overwork in her school teaching. She has now returned to Revere, and Mr. Ringdahl to Leominster schools.

Mrs. James Irvine is spending the week with friends in Boston and vicinity. She joins her husband in Orange soon, if a suitable house can be obtained.

Miss Georgianna Maynard is expected home on Saturday from Bradford, N. H., where she has been teaching, for a two-weeks' vacation.

Mrs. V. W. Gillespie has received a letter from Eddie Duffey from a Red Cross hospital in France, where he was having a run of the mumps. He thinks the Red Cross hospitals and equipment cannot be beat, and could not praise it enough. He hopes to be back in the States before long.

Mrs. Lucy Boynton, who is eighty-seven years of age, is confined to her bed at her home with the Misses Lawrence, Park street, as the result of a fall. One limb seems to be affected, although no bones were broken. She is receiving the best of care, and the daily attention of the district nurse. She is quite cheery in spite of the enforced stay in bed, and her blindness.

Mrs. Elias Soule received a box of souvenirs from her son Ray in France, and a letter with instructions to send no more mail there, as he would probably have called for home as a member of the 26th Division.

News from France.

Irving Church, of this town, who has been overseas in an Aero Squadron, under date of February 14, sends the following communication to his mother, Mrs. Clara Church, of this town:

"Ten months ago at Romorantin in France, three Aero Squadrons, fed and quartered by the French and commanded by an American major, started the work that developed into the building center of the A. E. F. Aerodromes. The first plane arrived at this center in May, 1918, and from that date until the signing of the armistice, 1,213 planes were received here and dispatched to various sections of France. Romorantin has been called the nesting place of the American Air Service, and it is now more like its grave, as these machines come limping in, many of them to be dismantled or demolished. A great work has been done here in the few months, nearly 3,000,000 square feet of buildings constructed, 500 acres of fields for flying prepared—that is, cleared, leveled,

Woman's Club Notes.

The annual entertainment given by the Woman's club for the children took the form this year of motion pictures, and the attendance was the largest remembered on any previous "children's day." The Althea theatre being packed full. By actual count there were 246 children present, besides some members of the club and mothers. The original date, and the usual one for the meeting of the club, Tuesday, was obliged to be changed to Friday, otherwise the event would have occurred before the Lenten season. There were a few who did not attend for this reason. The pictures, "Jack and the bean stalk," were repeated in the evening to a much smaller crowd, and mostly adults. There was an informal business session at the close of the afternoon performance.

On Tuesday, March 18, the regular meeting of the club will be held in the vestry of the community church. A special board meeting is called by the president at 2:15. At the meeting at 2:45 Rev. R. W. Rust will speak on "Distinctive traits of Pilgrims and Puritans." There will be music by a quartet, composed of Miss Ruth Walker, Miss Mary Wood, O. M. Nash and L. P. Shattuck; also, solos by Miss Walker and by Mr. Nash. Mrs. Irene Attridge and Mrs. Elsie Copp will give reports of the recent State Federation of Women's clubs which they attended in Boston.

Marriage.

The marriage of Thomas E. Benner, M. A., son of Mrs. Cora Scott Benner, of Lowell, and Miss L. Hester Foster, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. James Mitchell Foster, of Boston, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, 44 South Russell street, on Saturday, March 8, at three o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, Rev. Mr. Foster, who is pastor of the Second Presbyterian church in that city. In the presence of the immediate families of the bride and groom.

The bride was a graduate of Simmons college, 1918, and a member of the college glee club, and popular among her classmates and companions. The groom became one of our townsmen in December of last year, when he assumed the position of supertendent of Pepperell schools and others in this district. He was a graduate of Harvard, class of 1914, and took his degree there as Master of Arts in 1916. He left a position as superintendent of the Lincoln school to join the aviation service, and at the time of the signing of the armistice was waiting at Long Island aviation camp for transportation to England to serve in a bombardier squadron. Upon his discharge from the service he accepted the position here. His close attention to and mastery of the details of his work have won the regard of those who have been associated with him, and his genial nature has also won him many friends. In the short time he has been among us, Mr. and Mrs. Benner are welcomed as acquisitions to the social and domestic life of the town.

They returned here from a short trip the early part of the week and proceeded at once to the suite of rooms in Hutchins house which Mr. Benner has already fitted up for occupancy. Through the forethought of Mrs. D. L. Whitmarsh and others, a silent welcome awaited them on the evening of their arrival, in the form of a lunch, and seems made fragrant with flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Benner announce they will be at home after March 15.

Service Record.

A valuable record of all the soldiers who served in the civil, Spanish and the late war is under preparation by the Thomas A. Parker post, G. A. R., and Mr. Luther Boynton, adjutant of this post, has been appointed to make up the record. A book especially designed for the purpose of recording the service record of the civil war veterans, which was presented the post by the late Hon. Frank Leighton during his life-time, will be used for the purpose, by vote of the post. When the post shall surrender its charter this book is to pass into the care of the Lawrence library trustees as a valuable book of future reference.

In order that these records may be authentic and complete, the assistance of all who served in the late war, whether in our forces or the Canadian regiments, is asked for. Blanks may be obtained from Mr. Boynton, the historian, or from the commander of the post, George G. Tarbell.

Death.

The death of Steven Arthur Scott, aged only nineteen years, occurred at the hospital in Lawrence on Friday, March 7, where he was taken seven weeks ago in hopes of receiving benefit from hospital treatment. He had been in failing health since last summer. While employed at the shipyard in Portsmouth, N. H., his work was largely doing some of the grinding of the brass work on an emery wheel, and it was thought that the brass dust, entering the lungs, had a harmful effect, as he suffered hemorrhages before coming home in September. He also had a run of the measles during an epidemic there in the summer, and after coming to Pepperell he was taken with influenza, from which, it may be said, he never recovered.

He was well liked among his young associates, and where he had been employed, his last place, before going to the Portsmouth shipyard, being on the Keyes farm, for the manager, Mr. Brown. A year ago this winter, with his brother, Raymond, he took a course at the Massachusetts Agricultural college in Amherst. His untimely death cuts short his ambitions for a useful life, probably along the line of agriculture, for which he had developed a good interest.

The young man was the son of the late Walter M. and Roselle Scott, formerly of this town, whose death occurred about ten years ago in Ayer, where they had removed. He was one of a family of nine children, and two sisters, Mrs. Blanche Lawrence, of Hillsboro, N. H., and Mrs. Carrie Ducharme, of Springfield, survive him; also, three brothers, Bernard A., Raymond B. and Everett W. Scott. Both Steven and his brothers have made their home much of the time with their aunt, Mrs. Lyman C. Blood, on Oak hill, where they are well known. Steven was cared for by Mrs. Blood, assisted by a nurse, previous to his going to the hospital, and the body was brought back there on last Saturday from Lawrence for interment in the family lot in Woodlawn cemetery, beside his parents and the other children.

Brief services were held on Sunday afternoon, conducted by E. F. Harmon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blood. The friendship and esteem of his friends and relatives was shown by the beautiful floral offerings.

WESTFORD

Center.

The academy closes this week Friday for one week's vacation. The Frost school closed on Monday on account of mumps. Not only pupils were afflicted but the principal, Mrs. Whiting, also has been taken to her home in Gloucester on Monday. Schools reopen on Monday, March 24.

Mrs. O. L. Brownsey went last week with her mother, Dunbarton, N. H. The latter had been spending the winter weeks at the parsonage.

In a recent letter to his brother, Roy B. Wheeler writes from Denver, Col., of seeing John Fisher, who was at Lafayette, Col., a number of times and having some visits together. We imagine it must have been very pleasant for these old friends who were playmates and neighbors in boyhood to renew old associations.

Miss Julia H. Fletcher is sick at her home with influenza.

Mrs. C. A. Blaney, who has been so seriously sick with pneumonia, is reported as gaining.

At the Sunday morning service at the Congregational church a beautiful bunch of twenty-five white carnations occupied a place in front of the pulpit. These were in memory of Olive J. Fyne, who died ten years ago this month, and were a tribute from loving relatives.

Mrs. John P. Wright entertained at her pleasant home in Cambridge a group of Westford friends for luncheon last week Friday. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Wright's hospitality were Mrs. William C. Roudenbush, Mrs. O. V. Wells, Mrs. G. F. White, Mrs. H. M. Bartlett and Mrs. W. Hartford.

The subject for the morning sermon at the Congregational church on Sunday will be "Extending the kingdom," and in the evening the second in the series of three lectures on the Pilgrims; subject, "Pioneers of Congregationalism." Sunday school and men's class at noon.

A very pleasant social gathering of last week was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Day, when Miss Edna Day, guardian of the Camp Fire Girls, with the other members, nine in all, were hostesses for the evening for the group of Boy Scouts. A good social time with games and refreshments of ice cream and cake were enjoyed. There were eighteen present.

Greetings came to the Westford friends this week from Mr. and Mrs. James L. Kimball in St. Petersburg, Fla.

"Better dressing on smaller expenditures," by Mrs. Ruth S. Reed, will be the subject for the afternoon at the Tadmuck club next Tuesday afternoon at Library hall.

Mrs. Helen M. Bartlett was summoned to Maine by the death of a general of an uncle this week. The circumstances were rather tragic, death being caused by falling from a roof.

Mrs. Isles, Mrs. Bosworth and Miss Prescott, at the telephone exchange, have all been having hard colds this week, but have maintained the usual prompt and courteous service.

An all-day ladies' Aid meeting was held at the Congregational vestry on Thursday with basket lunch and hot coffee at noon.

Strenuous Week.

The hose company had an unwellcome amount of business this week. To begin with, Monday forenoon a call came for a chimney fire at the house of Mrs. C. R. DeCaron on the Lowell road. Wednesday morning a call came for a fire confined to the inside of the chimney. No damage. Shortly after dinner the same day a similar call came from a house in the village. This time the fire was all in the parlor stove and stayed there. The third call was more serious. About 1:30 o'clock Wednesday morning a telephone call came for a fire at a camp near Keyes pond. When the members of the fire company got there they found that a member of the home guard, on his way home from the prize drill, elsewhere, noticed in this column, found a fire started on the back piazza of a camp on the shore of the pond belonging to Mercer of Lowell. He was able to extinguish this and with a neighbor went home, only to be called by the neighbor because the camp was again on fire. When they got there they found that the fire was in another camp close by, belonging to Henry L. Williams, of Lowell. It was then too late to save anything, but they saw a light which proved to be another camp on fire, perhaps 75 rods away, belonging to Moses Hobson, of Lowell. It was also too late to save anything there, and on getting there they found a fourth camp close to the Hobson camp on fire on the farther side.

At this juncture an auto from Lowell stopped, in which there were three soldiers, late arrivals from overseas, and four Forge Village men. This fourth fire was extinguished with moderate damage. This camp belonged to Henry L. Williams, of Lowell. Examination showed charred rubbish from the woodland, which had apparently been used to start the Mercer and the Williams fires. A bottle which held a few drops of kerosene was found near the charred rubbish at the Williams camp, and it was discernable on the side of the building.

Prize Drill.

A competitive drill was held on Tuesday evening by the home guard, presided over by Major Tuttle, of Concord, with Captain Hall of Concord and Branigan of Groton as judges. The first event, squad drill, of three squads, was won by the first squad, Corp. Roudenbush commanding. This squad was made up of Privates H. L. Wright, L. W. Wheeler, A. H. Sutherland, B. Sutherland, James Harrington, James Payne, Artemas Griffin and Arthur Robinson.

The second work was squad movements. The second event was a contest of all privates present in the manual of arms, won by Charles Robey, with George J. Delahaye, company bugler, as second. Robey has recently enlisted for the second time in the company, having recently been discharged from the army after overseas service.

The third event was a contest in the manual of arms by the non-commissioned officers. Corp. Roudenbush won this, with George Wilson second. Wilson is in his second enlistment after a recent discharge from the army.

After the awarding of the prizes by Major Fisher, of Lowell, all adjourned to the lower hall for lunch, served by Sergt. Harrington. An address by Major Fisher followed.

About Town.

The fourth and last farmers' institute of the season will be held on next week Wednesday at the Baptist church in North Billerica. At the morning session, 10 o'clock, the Farm Bureau will be represented by speakers who will talk on "The outlook in agriculture for 1919," to be followed by discussion, and an address on "Poultry other than a side issue on the farm," the speaker to be supplied by the Agricultural college at Amherst. Dinner at noon with the usual after-dinner orations. In the afternoon Dr. Wheeler will give an address on "Fertilizers that we use and abuse." He is connected with the Agricultural college and an authority on the above question.

At the last meeting of the Grange there was a word while time. W. R. Taylor entertained with an itemized statement of his views on "house-keeping," a sort of simplified house-keeping like after ye mankind folks. This was followed by a long procession of ideas by Miss Edna Sargent on "How women would run a farm." Both papers were well keyed with wit and a wonderful effusion of experienced advice. All in all it is worth while to make test cases of them in house and farm. Miss Ripley, formerly of Harvard Grange, gave a very entertaining recitation. Much discussion and many questions slipped in that was not on the lecturer's "orders of the day" and amusement was kept up until light dancing called for its innings.

The annual farmers' week will be observed at the Agricultural college in Amherst, March 17-22, inclusive. The farm event of the year for Massachusetts farmers; a week devoted to the discussion of post-war problems of agriculture and home economics.

The next meeting of the Grange will be held on next week Thursday evening. The lecturer's hour will be the address of Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor. This is to be a real spring meeting, and there will be an original love poem contest between the married and single men. A millinery contest between the married and single men and a potato planting contest between the farmers and farmettes is on the docket.

There was a full house at the last meeting of Middlesex-North Pomona Grange on last week Friday. "National prohibition" and "Daylight saving" and other less national questions were discussed. On the daylight saving there was a feeling that as bread is the first law of earth and the farm, it makes the bread before it is raised with yeast, that any legislation that sets the clock ahead without setting the sun ahead is interfering with the natural division of daylight as laid down by the sun as regulator. Farmers who have to milk now at four o'clock or later, the milk can and under the push timetable have to milk at three o'clock right in the midst of the serenity of cud-chewing time, isn't very far removed from disturbing the peace.

Daniel H. Sheehan has been spending the winter in Harrison, Me., where he has an engagement in a lumber camp as saw sawyer.

The W. C. T. U. met last week with Mr. George P. Walker. It was a real business utility as was the previous meeting with Mrs. Janet Wright—serving for the Belgians and kindred work.

Miss Anna O'Brien, who has been seriously ill at her home on the Stony Brook road with influenza, is now seriously better.

Seth W. Banister, who has been having hospital treatment for injuries, writes home that he expects to leave Germany for home as soon as hospital conditions are allowable.

If you have anything to sell by auction try William F. Fitzgerald, auctioneer, Ayer. Three years' experience.

Interesting Sermons.

Rev. L. H. Buckshorn showed a sheath of interesting sermons to your correspondent at the church christening last Sunday. There were four sewed together. The first was the sermon preached by Rev. William Ellery Channing at the ordination of Rev. Jared Sparks to the pastoral care of the First Independent church of Baltimore, Md., May 5, 1819. The other three were copies to Dr. Channing from "A gentleman in Boston," and the other (fourth) was an answer by Dr. Channing to the other two. It bears his autograph on the title page. Mr. Buckshorn preached on the anniversary of Dr. Channing's sermon and its significance for the entire christianity. The broader theology with its finer spirit that has come to be in both branches of the Congregational church (Unitarian and Orthodox) has come out of a director study of the life of Jesus. Channing was largely responsible for this. Before his time it was the Jesus himself and not what the spirit of the New Testament meant, but what Luther or Calvin, or Jonathan Edwards said about him. Mr. Buckshorn referred to the following passage as one of the three thoughts in the entire sermon, "A revelation is a gift of light. It comes by the darkest, and multiplies the perplexities." All the sermons of good state of preservation.

Interesting Session.

Rev. L. H. Buckshorn attended the two-day session of the Hillsboro, N. H. County Farm Bureau, which was held at the Congregational church in Hillsboro, N. H., on Tuesday and Wednesday last week. The session was held in the morning at 10 o'clock and in the afternoon at 2 o'clock. The session was held in the morning at 10 o'clock and in the afternoon at 2 o'clock. The session was held in the morning at 10 o'clock and in the afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Congregational Men's Club will hold their next regular meeting on Sunday evening, March 15. Supper will be served at seven o'clock. At eight o'clock George M. Graham of the Y. M. C. A. at Camp Devens, whose work has been among the Maine lumbermen, will speak of his work at this meeting. Public generally invited to this service.

Alfred S. Branson attended the funeral of his father on Friday of this week from the home at Somerville.

Alexander Williams, Howard Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Webber attended Tuesday morning's trip to South Dakota. The journey is to be made in Mr. Williams' Hudson Super-Six. While in South Dakota the party will make their home with Mr. Webber's father, who owns a large cattle ranch there. The party expect to be gone about a month.

nity. The Hillsboro County Farm Bureau is actively engaged in the transformation of its competent corps of men and women under the charge of County Agent Smith. The best farmers and the best business men in Hillsboro County are members and hard workers in it. Where are we farmers and business men in Massachusetts?

Gravestone.

The members of Cameron circle, C. of P. of A., held a well attended meeting in their rooms on Tuesday evening. Considerable business of importance was transacted and several applications for membership were received.

The Lenten devotions that were held in St. Catherine's church on Tuesday evening were very largely attended. The services consisted of the recital of the rosary followed by a very powerful sermon by the pastor, Rev. C. P. Heaney on "Sin." After the sermon the benediction of the blessed sacrament was given. The regular choir were in attendance.

The members of Count Westford, M. C. O. F., held their regular meeting on Thursday night.

Mrs. J. W. Blodgett of Millstone road, near the Groton line, has been ill with pneumonia for the past few days and the latest reports finds her much improved. Her many friends here are hoping for her speedy recovery.

Miss Nettie Hanning has been on the sick list for the past few days. The Victory Girls of St. Catherine's parish who have been very active in the United War Work campaign, have recently sent in the sum of $175.00 to headquarters, which represents the amount that was raised by the girls in various ways during the campaign. They all worked hard and deserve great credit for the fine showing made.

The heavy rains for the past few days loosened up the ground in great shape and as the ice is out of the Mill pond and the boys have already begun their marble games, it begins to look like spring.

Forge Village.

Rev. Angus Dun preached his farewell sermon at St. Andrew's mission last Sunday. In spite of the severe rain storm a large number was present. Mr. Dun left here for New York on his way to Washington, to do research work for six months for the government. Later, he will go to England for a year's study. Rev. Lester Wallace, curate of the Episcopal church in Taunton, will occupy the pulpit on Sunday.

Westford academy will close for the spring vacation on March 14.

Miss Helen Lord, nurse at the Newport naval hospital, R. I., was home on a two-days' furlough recently.

Miss Mildred I. Parrott, of Lowell, spent the week-end as the guest of Miss Lillian Baker.

Wade Hitchcock, a woodsman from Maine, working for H. W. Flavel, the local milkman, cut and piled twenty cords of hard wood in five and one-half days last week. Mr. Flavel believes that the Maine chopper's record is one that can't be equalled in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Brown and little son Stephen, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Burnett and son, all of Clinton, spent the week-end with their relatives here.

I. O. O. F. Initiation.

A class initiation was held in Abbot's hall on last Saturday evening under the auspices of Loyal Self Help lodge, I. O. O. F., M. U. The meeting was called to order at 6:30 with all officers and a large number of members present. The regular routine of business was gone through and seven proposals for membership were received and acted upon. The initiation staff of Wameest lodge of Lowell, which was to perform the initiation ceremony with other members of the order, arrived about this time. The meeting was then turned over to the staff and twenty-one candidates were initiated into this lodge. Much credit is due to the staff for the able manner in which they performed the ceremony, the work making a decided impression on all present.

After the initiation refreshments were served and a general good time was enjoyed. The following members contributed to the program: Piano solo, P. G. G. Wilson; remarks, James Smith; song, R. Holden; remarks, W. Bowles; song, A. Scott; remarks, W. Burnett; song, F. Baker.

The committee in charge of the entertainment consisted of Fred Davis, John Baker, John Bennett, C. Benson, G. W. Jones and A. Nelson. The committee was ably assisted by other members of the lodge.

United States civil service examinations for stenographers and typewriters, field service, are held at Camp Devens every Tuesday, beginning with March 18. Applications and information concerning this examination may be obtained from Dr. William F. Slade, secretary, Y. M. C. A. employment bureau, Camp Devens.

Private Max M. Lustig, a member of C Company, 6th United States Infantry, 5th Division, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Lustig, of Brooklyn, died the first of the week at the hospital at Camp Devens while undergoing his fourth operation since he was wounded on October 14 at Verdun, France. At that time he was shot by a German sniper and the bullet caused a compound fracture of the left thigh. Prior to being wounded young Lustig had been through several battles, acting as runner and in lookout stations, and had escaped unscathed. He was drafted on October 6, 1917, and was sent to Camp Greene, N. C., going from there overseas in the following March.

George M. Barrows, son of Mr. and Mrs. U. H. Barrows, Pleasant street, returned home last Sunday morning. He entered the army in the 301st Ammunition Train, Co. D, Camp Devens, July 12, 1918. Soon after his division, the 78th, was started for France, and his regiment went by way of Canada. When the division was used to fill up other divisions, which had become depleted, he was put in the Headquarters Company band of the 364th Infantry Regiment of the 41st or Sunset Division. This division was just started for the front in November, and before they reached a point where actual fighting was in progress hostilities had ceased. Mr. Barrows received his discharge at Camp Dix on March 8. He expects to remain at home for a short while and later expects to re-enter the Hudson law office in Fitchburg, where he was formerly employed.

It is understood that at the next special town meeting, soon to be called, an appropriation for the continuance of the macadam road on upper Washington street will be asked. The part of Washington street from opposite Frank Miller's, extending down to a point opposite D. H. Dickerson's, is in such a poor condition that at times it has been impossible to get any traffic over it. The ground is so springy that the only solution seems to be the construction of a stretch of macadam such as has been put in over the road just above the spot referred to.

Miss Oliver Holt has been substituting this week for Miss Mary F. MacManus, teacher of English in the high school. Miss MacManus has been confined to her home in Concord, suffering with throat trouble. Miss Holt, who is from Worcester, was graduated from Weston college in 1917.

Weekly prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7.30.

The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church will hold a food sale at the home of Mrs. Byron Murphy, Grove street, Friday afternoon, March 21, from three to five o'clock.

Within a few hours of landing on American soil from the Troopship Vedic, overseas fighting men were enjoying an all-star show furnished by Mae Rynne, well-known soprano and singer of Irish melodies, and her entertainers from Lowell. This affair was staged in the Main Knights of Columbus building in Camp Devens, near to which the boys from the Vedic are quartered. Before performing at the K. of C. hut the talented entertainers were escorted through the wards of the base hospital by Knights of Columbus field secretaries. The wounded and convalescent soldiers enjoyed a real treat on this occasion. By popular request, Miss Rynne sang "Ave Maria."

Christian Science services are held each Sunday morning at 10.30 in Turner's block, corner of Main and Washington streets. The subject for Sunday is "Substance." Wednesday evening meeting at 7.30. The Christian Science reading room is open from one to nine o'clock in Carley's new block. All are welcome to the services and to the reading room.

Mrs. George H. Hill is confined to her home with illness.

Chauncey Davenport of the U. S. navy, was in town this week for a few days, staying at the home of his folks on Groton road. He is located at an aviation field in North Carolina and has charge of the storehouse there.

Latest reports show that Mrs. Eugene Barry is still dangerously ill and some change is expected within twenty-four hours.

Mrs. Sarah A. Hopkins is very ill at the home of her son, Capt. B. H. Hopkins, Washington street. Mrs. Hopkins has been making her home there during the past year.

At a meeting of the Board of Trade on March 5 a committee was appointed to consider the power rate for home use in the town.

The annual convention of the Ayer District Sunday School association will be held in Ayer on March 25. At the district tour this week Monday Leo Gordon, one of the local itineraries, was fined ten dollars for operating an automobile without a registration. Percy Smith, of Groton, was found guilty of non-support of his wife, Thursday, and ordered to pay her ten dollars a week. Arthur St. John, of Shirley, was sentenced to three months in the house of correction on Thursday for assault and battery on his wife.

The Ladies' Benevolent society of the Federated church held their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon, March 11, at the home of Mrs. George B. Turner, East Main street, and a large number were present. Plans for the union fair were discussed and the following committees appointed: The appointment of Mrs. Grace A. Lentz as chairman of candy, table and of Mrs. W. H. How as assistant were confirmed. Mrs. Amy Louise Smith's name as chairman of children's table and Miss Amy Nixon as assistant was also confirmed. Committees—Fancy table, Mrs. Alice C. Pollard and Mrs. Madeline P. Sargent; apron table, Mrs. Ruth P. Brown and Mrs. Edith B. Hussam; food table, Mrs. Almira Sargent and Mrs. Mary L. Brooks; tea room, Mrs. Ida C. Boutwell and Mrs. Jennie Leahy; entertainment, Mrs. Sacke Sanders and Mrs. Edith D. Johnson; decoration, Mrs. Mae Carley and S. J. Andrews. At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess and her daughter, Mrs. Grace A. Lentz.

The forty-fourth annual concert and ball given by Division No. 7, A. O. H., will be held in the town hall on Monday evening, March 17. Music by Wilby's orchestra of Fitchburg.

While the state and local officials were raiding a certain house in Ayer last Saturday evening, one of our well-known young men of the town, for some purpose of other found it necessary to go to the house. It was unfortunately that he approached while the raid was in progress and he was so surprised at the sight of the police officials that all he could think of was to run. Ayer's most popular and successful police officer started in pursuit. This so unnerved the young man that his course took him into a nearby pond, police officer following. A thrilling rescue was made and the fellow was taken to the police station to be arrested. It has not been definitely ascertained whether the young man made for the pond through nervousness or by intent.

On March 22 there will be a sheriff's sale of the goods and fixtures of the Canton restaurant. This restaurant was opened about nine months ago and operated by a Chinese firm. It was closed about a month ago.

John Traquair returned this Friday afternoon from a business trip to Turner Falls.

The art club of the Woman's club met on Thursday evening with Mrs. Susan M. Barker. The program was current art news and a discussion of Birge Harrison's article on "Quality." Refreshments were served.

The Unitarian church school held a party in the church hall on Monday night. Supper was served at 5.30 o'clock. Games were played, an informal entertainment of story telling by the members was given, and singing of some modern songs was greatly enjoyed. The minister, Rev. Frank B. Crandall, was the guest of the school. The party was in charge of the superintendent, Mrs. Susan M. Barker, who was assisted by Mrs. Mary Hume and Mrs. Roy Lawton.

The Wild Rose troop of Girl Scouts met Tuesday afternoon with their captain. Besides the general exercises there was work in first aid and seamstress and a study of the new scout song.

Happy Jack Thrift club has secured this week the sale of sixty-four thrift stamps and seven war stamps and Happy Jack is very happy.

The main features at Page hall theatre for next week are: Sunday, continuous performance from six to ten p. m.; Monday, William Fox will present Theda Bara in an eight reel super production, "Cleopatra." Even better and bigger than "Salome." Fatty Arbuckle in his latest Paramount Sennett comedy, "Camping Out." Tuesday, William Farnum in his latest, "For Freedom." A picture with the Farnum punch. Wednesday, latest Metro production and latest Pathe News. Thursday, Dorothy Gish in her latest Paramount, "Hope Chest." Friday, Constance Talmadge in her latest, "Mrs. Lettingwell's Boots." Saturday, Tom Mix in his latest, "Fame and Fortune," two reel Fox comedy, latest News.

This Saturday Proctor's Strand presents Mary Miles Minter in the "Eyes of Julia Deep," adapted from the story of the same title by Kate L. McLaurin as Julia Deep, a short girl. Mary Miles Minter is cast in a role that gives full play to her charm and winsomeness. Every opportunity is given Miss Minter to enact what many believe to be the most versatile role of her popular career. There is a gripping love interest woven through the thread of the plot. Charlie Chaplin in a two reel comedy, "The Tramp." Latest Gaumont News. Sunday at six and eight p. m., Maxine Elliott in the six-reel feature, "Fighting Odds." The star is called America's most beautiful stage actress. You will never see a better play passed for Sunday. Do not miss it. Red Cross News. Two reel Billy Parsons comedy.

Rev. and Mrs. Angus Dun and little son left Monday morning for New York. Mr. Dun preached his farewell sermon at St. Andrew's church on Sunday morning to a large audience. He will be engaged in government work for the next six months and later expects to go to England for a year's study. Rev. Lester Wallace, from the Episcopal church in Taunton, will occupy the pulpit at St. Andrew's church on Sunday. It is the regret of the townspeople that we must lose a man such as Mr. Dun, who has been so helpful to us in our religious and community life.

The Misses Emma and Helen Theresa Kinney entertained the Unitarian Girls' club at their home on Williams street, Wednesday evening. Miss Emma Kinney may or may not have observed the great popularity of the home of her neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Beckford, where all the members stopped before coming to their own home. She was apparently an entirely unsuspecting hostess. The meeting proceeded and refreshments were served as usual. At an opportune moment Mr. Beckford appeared at the door with a large basket handsomely decorated and piled high with bundles of every shape and size. When these packages were opened useful articles of every description came to light, tokens of the esteem and good wishes of the club to Miss Kinney.

Tickets may be secured and tables reserved for the club to give the town next Wednesday evening in the town hall, at H. H. Proctor's.

A public meeting will be held in the Federated church on Wednesday evening, March 19, at 7.30, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. The union will have as guests the state executive committee. The program will be in charge of the state general officers and will consist of an address by the vice-president-at-large, Miss Caroline M. Cammel, and two-minute addresses by other state officers. Appropriate music. Artists, Mrs. Slosser and Serg. Parker. Considerable interest in being shown about town concerning the report that the demobilization activities of Camp Upton will soon be transferred to Camp Devens. It is felt that if this is done there will be a return of the former business activity to the town. President Wilson's recent visit to Boston and knowledge of the shipping facilities of that port is believed to be the basis for such a change. It is stated that Camp Devens can easily accommodate 38,000 men without stretching a bit of canvas.

Miss Mary MacManus returned to her duties at the high school, Thursday, after a short illness.

The Girls' Patriotic league entertained a group of officers on Tuesday evening at the school. The program consisted of a musical number, "The Girl's Hall," which was furnished by a colored jazz orchestra from the camp and the occasion was enjoyed by all.

Children's day tickets for March 29 may be obtained from Mrs. Jennie Chaffin at this meeting.

W. C. C. S. Notes.

Owing to the heavy rain and bad roads last Sunday the concert which was to have been given by chorists of Temple Adath Israel was postponed.

The dance given on March 11 by the W. C. C. S. Girls' league for the officers at Camp Devens, was well attended. The matrons were Mrs. N. S. Gould, Mrs. Herbert Farnsworth, Mrs. George A. Sanderson, Mrs. H. Irwin, Mrs. E. O. Proctor and Mrs. Charles Haslam.

A burlesque "Bluebeard," written and presented by the Gleaners of Leominster, will be presented at the Soldiers' club on West street on Saturday evening, March 15, at 7.30. Members of Arthur Crosby's band, Worcester, will give a concert at the Soldiers' club on Sunday evening at 7.30. The two concerts given previously by this band were well enjoyed. All are members of the musician's union, men of exceptional talent, and are donating their services.

A group of Groton players will present a farce, "April fools," at the Soldiers' club on Tuesday evening, March 18, at 7.30.

There has been a revival of interest in bowling at the Enlisted Men's club, Camp Devens. Under the direction of Lieut. Parker, squads of men go down each afternoon and evening. Monday afternoon and evening of each week the alleys are to be placed at the disposal of officers. The club accommodations have been increased lately, and Mr. Hayden, the manager, extends a welcome to every soldier to the club. The hour of opening has now been changed from nine to eight o'clock in the morning.

Arrangements have been made for the government trucks to bring convalescents from the base hospital to the Coffee House three times a week. The men are entertained before dinner with games and various forms of entertainment are presented in the afternoon. Eighty-seven wounded soldiers enjoyed the program presented by sailors from Bunkin Island on Thursday.

Unitarian Church.

Sunday services—10.45, regular offices and sermon; preacher, Rev. Frank B. Crandall, subject, "Farming out religion."

7.30—Evening prayer and sermon; music by the choir of the First Parish church, Fitchburg; preacher, Rev. Dr. Howard A. Pease, First church, Fitchburg.

The preacher of the evening service is one of the leading clergymen of our neighboring city of Fitchburg, and was formerly minister in the university city of Ithaca, N. Y. An interesting feature of the preacher is that his doctor's degree is in medicine. He is Rev. H. A. Pease, M. D. He entered the Unitarian ministry from the medical profession.

Clipping.

The following is taken from the March number of the Telephone Topics. One evening recently the operators who are living at Neitaco hall, their home during service at Camp Devens and at Ayer central offices, gathered in one of the attractive rooms and grouped themselves for a photograph. These girls come from every state in our territory and their stay at Camp Devens is made particularly pleasant and attractive at the home on the hill. One day late in December, Colonel Rolfe, division quartermaster at Camp Devens, called at Manager Merrill's office at Ayer and paid a very gratifying compliment to the service at the camp. He said that an officer from another camp had been visiting him during the previous week, who had been at five of the largest cantonments in the country, had used telephones in each camp extensively, and said the service at Camp Devens was so far superior in every respect that he could not remark upon the fact. Furthermore, this visiting officer thought our operating force very efficient and courteous.

Colonel Rolfe added that he, too, had wide experience with telephone service and that Manager Merrill how much he appreciated the service at Camp Devens.

During the United War Work Campaign the girls who live at Neitaco hall subscribed $103.00. A few days after the campaign closed, Miss Mabel E. Simonds, mother, received a letter from Theodore W. Barry, chairman of the campaign, expressing his appreciation of the great assistance Miss Simonds and the girls gave to the drive. He said the response of the young women was most generous and peculiarly "since many may not feel any personal interest in the town of Ayer."

Assaulted and Robbed.

On last week Friday afternoon one of the most brutal assaults and robberies that has ever taken place in this vicinity occurred at the Meekins place near the Willows. About three o'clock a stranger appeared at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Meekins, where Mrs. Meekins was alone and said that he understood that the farm was for sale and wished to get the particulars. Mrs. Meekins showed him all over the place and they then returned to the house.

Both the stranger and Mrs. Meekins were seated in the sitting-room when suddenly the man jumped upon her and grabbed her about the throat. When he had choked her so hard that she lost consciousness, he opened the cellar door and threw her down the stairs. As he did so he viciously kicked her. After doing this he systematically searched and ransacked the house. It is understood that he discovered about forty dollars in money. He then left the place.

When Mrs. Meekins regained consciousness she placed a chair in the cellar and endeavored to climb out of a window, for the door was locked. As she was doing this Curtis Drew, the R. F. D. delivery man from Littleton, who was driving by, discovered her. He assisted her to the house and gave the alarm of the robbery. A good description of the man has been secured and the police are on his trail. Mrs. Meekins is still weak from the blows and bruises she received.

Bowling.

The Ayer bowling team won the first leg of a three-game bowling match between Ayer and Fitchburg on Thursday evening. Tuesday of last week single as well as high three stringers and he was ably supported by the rest of the Ayer team. Mr. Coleman, who recently won the bowling championship of Fitchburg, spoke very highly of the Main street alleys. The second game will be held on Thursday of next week at the Putnam street alleys, Fitchburg. The score of Thursday evening, in detail, was as follows:

FITCHBURG
Berger	82	94	370
Johnson	107	98	297
Hammella	112	84	228
Smith	112	84	228

To the Editor:

In your issue of March 8 appeared the following comment: "It must be a good thing for our friend of the American uses, to have written the robbery story in the Boston American of Thursday out of whole cloth. There was no robbery or any attempt at robbery, neither was it the pleasure of any of the officers to employ the force of the state police, if there were any here."

The writer of that item is indebted to his memory for his jests and to his imagination for his facts. I did not say in my article there was a robbery. Neither did I mention "state police."

I said that Capt. Gordon of the Cambridge police and another officer visited the store. That was a fact. I gave the names of a young woman and two men who were in a machine in front of the store at the time the robbery was committed. That was a fact. I gave the name of the manager of the store. That was a fact.

I talked to Capt. Gordon, who admitted he was representing District Attorney Nathaniel Tufts of Middlesex county. That was a fact. It is a fact the manager was in the store. My story as it appeared in the American contained nothing but facts.

The manager of the store met me in the street the next day and insulted the race from which I speak when he said it was a man named Harp. Nice talk from a man who wanted the United States to govern Ayer. I can now see why he was anxious to have United States troops patrol the town. American Reporter.

Federation House Notes.

The motion picture attractions at the Federation House offer an opportunity to see some favorite artists. On Saturday, in the afternoon and evening, will be shown "In pursuit of Polly," in which Billy Burke is the clever star. There will also be a Pathe News film. On Wednesday evening of next week the feature will be Gladys Leslie in the Irish comedy, "The Little runaway." On Wednesday of each picture shown a Burton Holmes travel picture of the present series.

On Sunday evening, at 7.30, religious services for soldiers and every body. Prof. Marshall L. Perrin, of Boston university, will give the address. His subject will be "How to escape from the bondage of Egypt." I gave an address on an especially fine address here in February and many will be glad to hear him again. Miss Ruth B. Mitchell will sing solos and a violinist will lead the singing.

On Friday evening of next week there will be the usual entertainment with refreshments.

Miss Elizabeth Johnson, who was a hostess at the house during the winter, has recently returned from France to engage in Y. M. C. A. war work.

The standing committee of the Federal House will hold an important meeting on Thursday, March 20.

PICK A PROSPEROUS MAN!

How do you pick a prosperous man? Don't you judge him by his clothes and by the little things in the way of personal equipment? If he wears a brass looking watch chain do you believe he is really prosperous? If his timepiece and its attachments look as if they came from a five-and-ten-cent store or a third-rate pawn shop, do you think of him as a money maker?

Do you think a prosperous or a successful business man is going to wear a picket timepiece?

Get a good watch and chain and show a proper pride in wearing them. People will see them and think the better of you. They will bring up your own self respect and encourage the development of characteristics that will help.

To be prosperous look prosperous! To look prosperous dress the part. A good looking watch and chain need not cost a lot of money—say from $2.50 to $5.00.

The sixth annual dancing party of the local telephone operators will be held on the evening of May 2 in Prescott hall. Dyer's orchestra of Worcester will furnish music.

The treasurer of the Men's club is able to announce the very satisfactory sum of $63.46 as the net proceeds of their recent concert by the Standish male quartet.

Miss Jessie Flynn returned home from her school teaching in East Bridgewater last week, suffering from an incipient attack of appendicitis. She has previously had similar attacks, and when the symptoms became more acute on Thursday she was advised by her physician to have an operation for the same, and went to Nashua that afternoon. An operation was performed at St. Joseph's hospital on Friday, which proved very satisfactory, and the patient is making good recovery. Mrs. Flynn visited her on Monday, and her sister, Miss Florence, went up to see her sister after school hours on Tuesday, the reports of her nurse being encouraging on both occasions.

Oscar Anderson, assistant professor of promology at Purdue university, Lafayette, Ind., is recovering from an operation for appendicitis which he underwent two weeks ago. He is still in the hospital in that city, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gustaf Anderson, of Oak Hill, are now receiving encouraging reports of his condition.

Rev. John B. Lewis and family, it is understood, are planning to remove to East Longmeadow, his new field of labor, next week. Mr. Lewis' pastorate begins there on Sunday, March 16. Their goods are to be shipped by train and until they are at their destination and repairs are completed in the parsonage, a furnished house has been placed at their disposal.

Mrs. Gertrude Geiger has proved herself the star canvasser for the papers, offered in combination, the Ladies' Home Journal, the Saturday Evening Post and the Country Gentleman. She recently received the gold Swastika pin, awarded for the largest number of subscriptions. Mrs. Geiger has been an agent for the same magazines for more than ten years, and this year, by a little extra effort, she secured thirty subscribers from December up to date.

The meeting of the Special Aid society was held on Monday afternoon at the rooms. Investigation showed that but few of the Pepperell boys are likely to arrive home sooner than the last of this month. If then, as there may be delays in embarkation and the matter of transports. However, plans were talked over, and if a certain number of our returning soldiers are with us on April 19, it seems probable that may be the date selected for the "Welcome home" banquet.

Henry F. Tarbell and Elmer Weston returned from their sea trip to Porto Rico on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Appleton were called to Boston on Thursday to attend the funeral services of the wife of Mr. Appleton's brother, William Channing Appleton, of Cohasset. Mrs. Appleton had just returned from strenuous work among the wounded in France.

The Mt. Lebanon Community associates held an all-day quilting bee at the home of Mrs. Anna L. Bancroft, Wednesday. As there was no Red Cross work obtainable Miss Anne Jewell provided the work. Mrs. Levi Sartelle, who was spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Bancroft, enjoyed tying rosette knots in the old-fashioned way. The quilt was completed and a story of an old-time quilting bee by Mary E. Wilkins-Freeman was read by Miss Jewell. A box lunch, with hot coffee, was enjoyed at noon. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. D. Walker on Wednesday afternoon, March 18, at 1.30. This is to be a "darning bee," with material furnished by the hostess.

Mrs. M. Drumm went to Worcester on Wednesday to visit her relatives. Her two sons are also in that city, the youngest, Francis, being spoken of as one of the promising students at Holy Cross college.

The East Village Social club held their regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon and were finely entertained by their genial hostess, Mrs. A. F. Parker. Numerous selections were rendered by the fine Edison phonograph, and the children of Mrs. Parker, Gwen, Clayton and Albert, Jr., with a small guest, Richard Pike, took their share of entertaining, with readings and little piano selections. A chafing-dish lunch was served by the hostess after the entertainment.

About Town.

Prudence Wright chapter, D. A. R., will hold their next meeting on Wednesday afternoon, March 19, with Mrs. Gertrude S. Tower—mothers' day. At the roll call each member will respond by a quotation on mother. Hostesses, Mrs. Gertrude S. Tower and Mrs. J. Idella Annis.

BOXBOROUGH

News Items.

The Ladies' Circle will hold a sewing meeting at the home of Mrs. Arthur Nelson next Thursday afternoon at two o'clock.

At the Red Cross meeting on Monday afternoon it was voted to change the time of meeting to Tuesday, as that day is more convenient for the workers.

Miss Maria Steele was appointed chairman of the Home Service department to take the place of Mrs. George Keyes, who resigned. Miss Mabel Wetherbee was elected chairman of the new knitting work for the Belgian women and children there is plenty of sewing for all who can spare time to do it.

The engagement is announced of Miss Florence E. Charles of East Sausage to George Richardson of this town. It is expected there wedding will take place early in the summer.

Perry Burns of Waltham, brother to Mrs. Leon Wetherbee, has been returned to Camp Devens from overseas. He came down to see his sister Tuesday evening and had very interesting experiences to relate. He was captured by the Huns and was held as a prisoner for several months, his release coming with the signing of the armistice. Ralph Smith has received his discharge.

We were very sorry to learn of the sickness of our former townsman, Arthur Wetherbee, of West Acton. He has been kept in the house all winter by a broken leg and just as he got on he could get about well on crutches he was taken with pneumonia, but is reported as better.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

The phase "to show the white feather," meaning to show cowardice, is an expression which rose from the fact that a white feather in the tail of a fighting cock is a sure sign that he is not a thoroughbred.

The reason that a fleet of airplanes flies in V shape, is that one may not get in front of the other and thus obstruct the line of vision. It is undoubtedly for the same reason that wild geese fly in that formation.

For cleaning old jewelry make a lather of warm soapsuds and add to it half a teaspoonful of sal volatile, and brush the jewelry in this, afterward polishing with an old silk handkerchief or piece of wash leather.

Water Protects Coal.

An interesting result of recent experiments with coal is the demonstration of the benefits of submerging the mineral in water. Coal deteriorates in the air, and there is the danger of spontaneous combustion, while when submerged not only was the fire danger eliminated, but scarcely any deterioration was shown. Experimentally, coal kept in the air showed from 2 to 10 per cent of loss in nine months, while when submerged there was scarcely any loss at all.

Balsam Gum.

The gum of the balsam fir, Abies balsamea, is known commercially as Canada balsam, and is largely used in the manufacture of optical instruments and in various other ways about scientific laboratories. There is a constant market for it, the price varying with the quality and the supply. Some time ago a fair quality was worth 20 cents per pound.

Uncle Sam's Islands.

The island of Tutuila and other small Samoan islands came into the possession of the United States in January, 1900. This island has an area of about fifty-four square miles, with a population of 3,800. Mauna and the other islands have a united area of about twenty square miles, with about 2,000 inhabitants. Pago Pago is the only good harbor.

Enough Said.

Brother and sister were parted for the first time, he going on a month's trip with their mother and father and she to spend the month with their grandparents. The leave taking was rather strained, as neither one of them quite knew what to say. Finally little brother walked up and putting his arms around his sister said: "Mardret, I'm your brother and you're my sister."

Valuable Tree.

A wonderful tree, known as the shen, is beginning to attract commercial attention in western Africa. It supplies the native not only with nuts, which they highly prize, but with a butter that may become an article of commercial importance. It is already exported to Europe, where makers of artificial butter find use for it.

Paint on Window Glass.

To remove paint or varnish from window glass. Keep the spots moistened till soft with turpentine and ammonia; then rub with coarse cloth dipped in coarse salt. Or moisten spots with baking soda dissolved in hot water. Then scrape off. The edge of a coin is sometimes used.—Housewife.

Only American Flag.

There are flags made of red, white and blue stripes, but the American flag has not only the stripes made in certain proportions, and number, but the stars as well arranged upon a blue field in certain proportions in a certain order. No one should mistake such bunting for the American flag.

Insects and Forest Fires.

Insects cause the destruction of more timber that would otherwise be available for building purposes than do forest fires, according to investigations made by the bureau of entomology at Washington.—People's Home Journal.

Miners as Gardeners.

The growing of leeks is a favorite occupation of the miners of Northumberland, England. They are skillful gardeners and particularly proud of their leeks, in the cultivation of which there is keen competition.

Musical Glasses.

Musical glasses are ordinary drinking glasses so tuned by their size and thickness that a damp finger passed round their brims produces the notes of the scale. Almost any ordinary diatonic air can be produced on them, also simple harmonies.

STUDY OF FRENCH.

An enlightened and patriotic Britisher has just done for his country what some alert American should do for the United States; he has given $100,000 to endow the "Marshall Foch professorship of French literature" at Oxford university. The endowment will place the study of French on the same footing as the study of Latin and Greek in the famous university, and thus the ties that bind the two countries together will be strengthened, while for all time the students of Oxford will be reminded of the great services of Marshall Foch. Knowledge of foreign languages is now a necessity of educated Americans, and particularly a knowledge of French, says Washington Post. That is the universal language, as useful in travel and foreign intercourse as it is delightful in its literature. Americans hereafter will be closely associated with the French nation. Thousands of Americans will remain in France or make arrangements to return there. No doubt business interests will be developed which will increase the need of men who are thoroughly familiar with both languages. Young Americans should be enabled to learn the French language as a part of their regular education. French professorships should be established in every college, and as soon as possible the language should be made a part of the common school course.

One sturdy-hearted hero lately returned from the war says he fears to go home to his mother and show her his terribly disfigured face. There will be hundreds of them and their mothers will be brave and will understand. To all of us those faces will be beautiful. This boy left us in his strength and manly beauty and he comes home covered with red gashes that may wear to plain scars in time. But let him cast off the notion that his mother will not be glad to have him with her, and we are all going to stand by her and by him to the limit.

Le Pere Victoire is the new name which the French people have given to M. Clemenceau. It has burst spontaneously out of hearts warmed by victory after long, cold months and years of anxiety and suffering. M. Clemenceau is a strong man who appeals to the popular imagination. It seems inevitable that he should have some familiar and expressive nickname bestowed upon him. He came into power as "Le Tigre," and just because he was "Le Tigre," and France has had no cause to regret that fact.

The all-highest warrior never led his armies, but kept far in the rear, watching battles through glasses. He devised no maneuvers, directed no strategy, took no active part in the war except to make speeches, and when the end came, instead of meeting events like a man, ran to shelter with such hurry that he left even his family, including a sick wife, behind him. The pitiful figure he will make in history after all his Napoleonic posing is almost enough to revenge the nations upon him.

If the German leaders realized, as they now declare, that the war was lost at the battle of the Marne, the greater was their criminality in carrying on a hopeless contest, with the ensuing enormous loss of life and destruction of property.

The soldiers who remain in Germany during the winter will be surprised and pleased with the ice on the Rhine. There will be all kinds of skating, and the old-fashioned fellow who used to be able to cut a figure eight on the glassy surface will no doubt be there.

The George Washington is a ship de luxe, yet its recent trip is not the culmination of possibilities in transatlantic travel. The next time a president of the United States makes the journey he will probably go on a magnificently appointed airplane.

The fashionable matron who takes a Pekinese darling riding in a pink automobile doesn't think much of a woman who boldly faces the public with twins. But you ought to hear the opinion of the mother of twins about the lady with the Pekinese.

Talking about your thrills, how would you like to experience the feeling of a Belgian soldier in a Prussian city making Germans doff their hats and salute?

The returned tanks don't want us to make heroes out of them. There's nothing real men hate worse than being petted.

A German society has been formed for encouraging aviation as a means of winning the next war. They don't see the point yet!

"Says wife is entitled to more than dog's life." Some would be perfectly satisfied with it.

Any of the boys will tell you that the finest day of the war was the day they got home.

Vain Pursuit. "So Nibblitz is dead?" "Yes." "Did he leave any property?" "Nothing to speak of. Nibblitz was the kind of man who had an idea that fortune was always just around the corner." "But he never succeeded in overtaking her?" "No. He has neither mistaken in the location of the corner or he lingered in the middle of the block until fortune moved on to some other corner."—Birmingham Age-Herald.
