News Items.

The funeral of Oliva Lepage took place last Saturday morning with high mass of Requiem being celebrated in St. Anthony's church at eight o'clock. Rev. Rosario Richard was the celebrant. The bearers were William and Michael Glonet, John Cormier, and Mr. Birthen. The deceased died on last week Thursday from a complication of diseases after an illness lasting thirteen years. He had been a resident of Shirley about twenty-four years. The survivors are a wife and two daughters, Annie and Bessie, aged twelve and eight years; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Lepage, and two step-sisters, Mrs. Lamphier of Fitchburg and Miss Bessie of Shirley.

The Camp-fire Girls held their regular meeting on last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Mary A. Hobbs on Center road. Miss Hazel Harris, of Fitchburg, spent the week-end with Miss Mildred Evans. Mrs. Clinton J. Lovell, of Henniker, N. H., spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barnard. Miss Felton and Mr. Tuller, of Boston, spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Anna F. Dakin. John W. Evans, who expected to return to Pennsylvania last Monday, postponed his return a few days, going last Saturday instead. At the final meeting of the registrars of voters, held at the town hall last Saturday afternoon and evening fifteen new names were added to the list of voters and thirteen names were dropped from the list. Rev. Howard C. Bridgman, of Brookline, spent the week-end at his home on Center road. Mrs. Anna F. Dakin expects to close her summer home at the Center soon and return with her mother, Mrs. Felton, to Cambridge for the winter. Eight from Shirley attended the meeting of the Middlesex Worcester Pomona Grange in Ayer last week Thursday. They were Mr. and Mrs. A. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Graves, Miss Hazel Cummings, Mrs. G. F. Burston, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Cummings. The address which was given at the equal suffrage meeting at the home of Mrs. Grace E. Winslow last week Wednesday, was read at this meeting. The cellar has been dug for the bungalow which Mrs. C. E. Lynch is to have built on the land opposite her home on Center road. The Girls' Sewing Guild of Trinity chapel held an interesting meeting on last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. W. Longley. The next meeting will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. C. E. Bradford. Mrs. Sara Longley and S. LeRoy Longley have returned home after spending several weeks at their cottage at Lake Whalom. Rev. Sherrard Billings, of Grotton School, will conduct the services at Trinity chapel on Sunday afternoon at 3.15. Sunday school classes after the service. A good attendance is hoped for as next Sunday is All Saints Sunday. There was a good attendance at the musical service at the home of Mrs. Grace E. Winslow on last Sunday evening. The program consisted of vocal and violin selections by Mr. LePride, piano and organ selections by Mrs. Winslow and Mr. Shattuck. The address was given by Rev. Percy Linden. It is to be remembered that these services are held at Mrs. Winslow's home every Sunday evening at five o'clock. They are non-denominational and everyone is cordially invited to attend. There is as yet no relief for the water question at the Center. What little rain has fallen has done nothing at all toward replenishing the well which in fact are decreasing daily. The situation is worse than it has been for many years and when one thinks of the outbreak of a fire at the present would mean the destruction of a serious aspect indeed. Why not as was suggested several weeks ago in this column have a meeting of the residents of the Center and discuss the water question and what methods of relief there may be? Some form of public water supply for the center is absolutely necessary and it will not be obtained if everyone waits for someone else to make the first move. Why not look into the matter now, while there is yet time before the annual meeting? Thirty-eight members of Shirley Grange attended the night at Littleton Grange on last week Wednesday, going in teams, autos and trucks. An excellent supper was served and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. Shirley's part of the program consisted of the farce, "How the story grew"; clarinet and piano duet, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Adams, and mandolin and guitar selections. There were two hundred and fifty were present.

LITTLETON.

Woman's Club. Common interests brought together an unusually large company of women at the Unitarian vestry on Monday afternoon when the Woman's club observed presidents' day. Presidents of similar clubs in Nashua, Pepperell, Ayer, West Concord, Hudson, West Acton, Harvard, Shirley, Westford and Maynard. The auditorium with its warmth of color in autumn leaves and chrysanthemums and gay carnations was cheery and inviting. For this the ladies were indebted to Mrs. Florence E. Wilcox and Mrs. Eliza Bradlee, decorators. The club ushers escorted about 150 women to seats. Among the number was one of our Littleton ladies, a very welcome member, who has been denied the blessing of sight for many days recently. Mrs. Alice J. Tenney was chosen delegate in addition to the president to the fall meeting of the State Federation at Norwood on November 24. The report of the secretary was read and approved, and there were voted into membership of the club Dorothy B. Priest, Mrs. Annie S. Hubbard, Miss Evelyn R. Hawes and Mrs. Martha W. Jones. Other Littleton members whose names were proposed for membership are Miss Henrietta Ewings, Miss Maud E. Sears, Miss Bertha Love, Miss S. Elizabeth Houghton, Miss Florence S. Whitcomb, Miss Esther Lovejoy, Mrs. Minnie A. Kimball. The ladies' quartet, always popular in club entertainments, sang "The Lord is my shepherd." Mrs. Jessie M. Young and Miss Emma Elizabeth Tenney most acceptably played two organ duets, "Rustic march" by P. B. Fumagalli and "Finale from Sonata in D minor" by Dr. William Volkmann. A brief but cordial welcome by the president was followed by greetings from different club presidents or other delegates, who also gave a survey of club achievements in their communities. The club quartet again favored the audience, singing "Good night, good night, beloved," winning much applause. Miss Marion W. Fung gave an illustrated lecture on "What the Mediterranean shores have bequeathed us," pleasantly blending history, art, romance, poetry and philosophy. Through the courtesy of Rev. O. J. Fairfield and Roland Houghton, who took charge of the reflections, a series of picture lectures were brought into service, beautifully illustrating the various phases of the speaker's subject. An important feature of the program was the social that completed the entertainment with a dainty tea was served by Mrs. Mary Brown and Mrs. Elizabeth W. Conant, ably assisted by the ushers.

For Re-Election Fifth District Congressman John Jacob Rogers A Record of Achievement

Two years ago the Fifth District sent Hon. John Jacob Rogers of Lowell to Congress as its Representative. Read this condensed record of some of his accomplishments in that brief period:

- IN 1913—In April: Began to work for reform within the Republican party as soon as he reached Washington, by introducing a resolution to change the method of apportioning delegates to the National Convention. In May—Addressed the House in an effort to save the flax industry of Andover. This action was taken at the request of the wage-earners of that town. Made an important tariff speech in the interest of the wage-earners of the Fifth District. Was appointed a member of the "Committee of Seven" of progressive Republican U. S. Senators and Congressmen to reorganize the Republican party. In session with this committee for three days and nights, and wrote a part of its report, providing for reforms. Named as a member of the important Committee on Foreign Affairs and also the Committee on Elections. In June—Obtained for the Lowell Post Office appropriation making possible much needed improvement. Advocated a deep sea channel in the Merrimack from Lowell to Newburyport. In July—Introduced a bill for the registration of lobbyists at Washington. In August—Threw open the Naval Academy appointments to competitive examination, thus giving any young man in the district a chance to gain it. Made an important address at a mass meeting of the Progressives and Republicans of New Jersey. Obtained rifles for General Ames Camp of Spanish War Veterans. In September—Made two important speeches on the currency bill. Sought to obtain a larger Post Office for Lowell, and gained a recommendation for an appropriation of $515,000 from the Treasury Department. In October—Brought the Committee on Rivers and Harbors on from Washington to view the Merrimack, and urged it be made navigable in order to give the district cheaper freight rates. Secured for New England 15 more delegates to the Republican National Convention. Introduced a resolution urging race equality and fair treatment for the negroes in Washington. In November—Appointed Chelmsford, Methuen and Stow boys as principal and alternates to the Naval Academy. Addressed the House in support of increased trade with South America. Spent ten day Christmas recess of Congress—the only respite from the eighteen months' continuous session—in visiting personally every large town in his district for the convenience of his constituents. IN 1914—In February—Spoke in opposition to the Shackleford Post Road Bill, which favored the South but hit Massachusetts hard. Appeared before Massachusetts legislative committee at the State House to advocate the election of national committeemen by popular vote. Introduced a bill to prevent the misbranding of textile goods. Voted against $25,000,000 "Pork Barrel" bill. Secured a new Post Office for North Woburn. In March—Made speech that attracted wide comment in and out of Congress on "The South in the Saddle." In April—Addressed Congress on "The Death of the Merit System in the Diplomatic Service," which was quoted with approval by leading publications throughout the country. Supported President Wilson in his attempt to avert a Mexican war. In May—Blocked the Secretary of the Navy in his effort to have bunting for American flags made abroad instead of in Lowell. Obtained from Government Fisheries 2,500,000 young fish for ponds and streams of the district. In July—Introduced amendment to the Constitution giving Congress the power to regulate the employment of women and children throughout the country. In August—Opened the appointments to West Point to competitive examinations to all young men in this Congressional district. In September—Voted in support of the Anti-Trust bill. Supported President Wilson in his neutrality position towards the European war. In October—In his speech entitled "Out-Herding Herod," urged national legislation to compel the South to treat working women and children with the same humanity as it is at all times shown in Massachusetts. VOTERS OF THE FIFTH DISTRICT, THIS IS THE RECORD OF A CONGRESSMAN WHO HAS MADE GOOD IN TWO YEARS; THE RECORD OF A MAN ALWAYS ON THE JOB. YOU WERE NOT MISTAKEN IN GIVING HIM YOUR SUPPORT IN 1912. YOU CAN TRUST HIM NOW. The only danger is in over-confidence in his re-election. WILL YOU COME OUT AND VOTE FOR HIM NEXT TUESDAY? Rogers Campaign Committee, J. GILBERT HILL, Chairman. Adv.
