PEPPERELL
News Items.
We have received an exquisite assortment of gifts, recently. Don't scoff the idea of its being too early to think of Christmas shopping. What a real relief to find a few choice things tucked away when the proverbial rush time is upon us! At the "Sisters Three, Gift and Food Shop," crest of hill, on Townsend street, Telephone, 82, Pepperell.
Lyman Robbins is taking his vacation from the store of Lane Bros., this week and next, and went to Hampton Beach on Thursday, accompanied by his wife and little daughter Thurlio, to remain a week.
Mrs. Bernice Blake Crane came from Erie, Pa., with her child, last week, for a stay of several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Kate Blake, Railroad street.
At Twin Valley farm, the new owners, Whiting Bros., are trying an experiment, new in this section, of clearing land by removing the stumps by blasting. There are some twenty-five acres of stumpage in that part of the farm lying on the opposite side of Brookline street from the buildings, the same which was cut off by Mr. Chamberlain previous to making the sale of the property, running from the place where the portable mill was located toward Park street, and the part which the former owner had already cleared sufficiently to plant with potatoes last season. Mr. Iten commenced work there Monday and the detonations were a matter of considerable conjecture until they were placed, as connected with the work of blasting out the stumps and roots of the trees. Mr. Iten has been given an acre of the twenty-five to make a test from.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cobb are heard from in Cushing, Me., having started for that place Saturday last, accompanied by Mrs. James Dunn, and son.
Mr. and Mrs. John Foster and daughter have been staying at the Boynton place on Elm street, although Mr. Foster, who has been making some repairs about the house, was obliged to return to his business in Somerville on Monday morning, expecting to return here for the week-end.
Miss Lena McGrath, who has been assisting at the Louthrop school in Groton, spent her week's vacation at her home in town, last week. On Sunday she went to visit her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Coppinger, at Needham Heights.
Mrs. Florence Willoughby is at the Massachusetts General hospital for observation and a possible operation, going on Wednesday.
Mrs. E. Edward Butler and Miss Mary are spending a short time at Lake Winnepesaukee, N. H.

Ancient Paper.
An ancient scrap of paper, yellowed with age, has recently come to our notice, through the kindness of Mrs. Thomas Kennedy, in whose home on River street the paper was found amongst many other old-time receipts, bills and memorandums, nearly a barrel full, in all, this being about all that she preserved in the house, which the Kennedy family have renovated and now occupy, was originally called the "Butterfield house." It was used as a tenement house for some years following the death of the original owner, Elijah Butterfield, who lived there for some years with his aged mother, and the papers in the attic had apparently never been disturbed for years. It is now a matter of regret that more were not saved, as the ancient document quoted below is of considerable historic value. The paper is headed "Regimental Orders. A minutes notice."

Copyright 1919 Hart Schaffner & Marx

Lt. William Hulbert, 2nd Regt., 3rd Div., 1st Inf., 2nd Brig., 3rd Division, Signed, L. S. Bancroft, Pepperell, June 24, 1833. Postscript:—White Pantaloons.
It is assumed by some that this postscript may have been the counter-sign or password, and not have any relation to any particular style of attire. On the outside of the folded paper it is addressed to Lt. William Hulbert, Millita on the double quick time.
While the name of Hulbert seems to be strange to many, even of the older citizens, the name of Lt. S. Bancroft, or Luther S. Bancroft, is well known, and as he was prominent in military affairs in the early days of the town, it is probable that the signature on the order is his.
Nahum Harwood, the colonel named, is evidently not a Pepperell man, as his name is not recalled in connection with any of the historical events of early history of Pepperell, as far as we have been able to learn.

Grange Notes.
At the regular meeting of Present Grange on last week Friday evening, "young people's night" was observed with a very large attendance of those and more or less of the regular attendants and patrons. The program was in charge of Mrs. Hattie Stewart and the Misses Flynn and Burkinshaw, and was opened with singing by all of "Star Spangled Banner," followed by a flag salute. A reading was given by Glenn Green and recitation by Margaret P. Olsen. A violin solo by Philip Blood was a most creditable part of the program, this being Master Blood's first appearance with the instrument in public, and as he has only been instructed for a short time. Recitations followed by Anita Marston and Phebe Blood, and Rachel Gagnon gave a pleasing little song. In conclusion readings were given by Misses Katherine Blood and Florence Flynn, and all joined in singing "America." The company of young people enjoyed games, and refreshments were served. To all the evening's entertainment reflecting much credit on the committee in charge as well as the children.
The next meeting will be held on August 22, the program in charge of Miss Sarah Tucker.

Annual D. A. R. Picnic.
As one of the preliminary items of preparation for the annual day of outing of the members of Prudence Wright chapter, D. A. R., the large flag of the host was unfurled across the entrance to Woodside early on Thursday morning, July 24. Later, a large flag belonging to the regent of the chapter, Mrs. Cushing, was used in decorating the piazza, and numerous other smaller flags gave a significant tone to the decorations of the grounds.
Mrs. George V. Herrig, of Somerville, with Mrs. Laura Herrig Kelly, of Lexington, and Mrs. George Pierce of Woodside, were the hostesses of the occasion, being assisted by two members of the outing committee of the chapter, Mrs. Thomas F. Graham and Miss A. M. Jordan.
Guests commenced to arrive in the morning, Mrs. Margaret Sutton, of Boston by auto, accompanied by Mrs. and Miss Wood, from Kokomo, Ind., with their grandson, Franklin Wood, visiting them from his home in Tennessee; also, Mrs. G. F. Jones and daughter, from Cushing, Mass., and Mrs. William Canavan, of Hollis, N. H. Members of the Millford (N. H.) chapter, expected to be present, were unable to attend.
Other guests of members from town were also present, making a pleasant gathering of thirty-five or more to enjoy at one o'clock the lunch, rendered doubly attractive by being served out under the tall chestnut trees in the grove near by.
The early part of the afternoon was devoted to the regular session of the chapter, in charge of the regent, Mrs. Cushing. A brief talk was given by Mrs. Sutton, secretary of the John Paul Jones chapter, D. A. R., of Boston. She was followed by Mrs. William Canavan, vice regent of the An-

During the afternoon the program was happily varied by an announcement formally given by the secretary of the local chapter of the engagement of Miss Mary Adele Boynton, a young member of the chapter, to Fay Bailey Williams, of Boston.
Music by Mrs. Laura Herrig Kelly on her violin, with Mrs. Sutton acting as pianist, afforded a rare treat to music lovers, and those who

GROTON

News Items. Nate E. Whittier, of Arlington, who was injured in an automobile accident in Ayer last Saturday afternoon, died at the Groton private hospital, that night from a fracture of skull. Mr. Lee Barron, from the same place, who was also in the same accident, had his injuries treated at the hospital and was able to return to his home.

Lieut. and Mrs. Townsend moved their household goods from Groton on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Shattuck have been spending this week at their camp at Cow pond meadow. Dr. Harold W. Smith, of the Groton state hospital in Worcester, is spending his vacation with his father, Willard Smith.

Have owned it. He also states that it is very commendable that the selectmen go over the job once a week with the paymaster. I would suggest that the selectmen would see more and be in "closer touch" if he made the trip every day. In this connection, I have been informed that the personnel on the paymaster's trip one week consisted of one selectman, one policeman, one timekeeper, one chief of police, one hired automobile and one chauffeur, all to pay one week's wages to the "thousands" of Groton's road employees.

spending a week with her mother. Mrs. Morris, returned to her home in Quincy on Monday. Mrs. Morris will remain in town until September. Mrs. E. C. Cummings has returned from Nashua and reports her aunt, Mrs. Nichols comfortable, though still at Memorial hospital, where her broken hip is being cared for.

A farewell banquet was held in honor of Rev. O. J. Falgout in the Orthodox church vestry by the Boy Scouts and their leader last Saturday evening. The dining hall was very tastefully decorated with evergreen and colored paper. A toothsome menu was served by the selectmen, prepared by their master. Following this pleasant feature after-dinner toasts were given by a few of the guests, Mr. Lamberton presiding as toastmaster.
